

In our home we listen to the radio more than we watch television, therefore K-LOVE and other such programs are very important. We are grateful for this option over the airwaves. It is assuring to know that it is safe for our family. I believe that our community is served well by K-LOVE for offering this option. It brings much encouragement and comfort in a troubled world. K-LOVE and other similar programming is a great asset! Thank you for your time.